The brokerage branch of the market was seasonably quiet yesterday and few stocks during the last week of 6,816,000 sales were reported. Several of them, however, affected property of previous week and 3,375,000 in the same week

Gothic style, which will stand on Cathedral Parkway east of Amsterdam avenue and just west of the Cathedral. It is to cost $150,000.

Plans have been filed for a five story residence of Colonial pattern to be built from designs by S. E. Gage for Theodore T. Elliman of Darien, Conna at No. 177 East Seventy-first street. It will be of brick, with limestone trimmings, with a frontage of 20 feet and a depth of 65 feet, and will be a companion to the residence at No. 179, for which plans were filed by the same architect last week. It is to cost $20,000.

J. M. De Varona, architect for the city, has filed plans for a one story storehouse to be built for the 179th street pumping station of the Department of Water Supply and Electricity in High Bridge Park near Amsterdam avenue. It will be of brick and terra cotta, 144 feet long and 32 feet deep and will cost $15,000.

Plans have been filed for remodelling the one story garage at No. 30 to 34 East Fifteenth street, which used to be the old Nillson Hall annex to the Academy of Music. The improvements, including the laying of new floors of reenforced concrete, are to be made from designs by C. H. Dietrich for Gilmore & Tompkins at a cost of $5,000.

Plans have been filed for adding a two story front extension, with roof garden and window boxes, for the Masters School Day Nursery, at No. 519 East Eighty-sixth street, the improvements being from designs by Harold Hall, as architect, and for remodelling the sidewalk and vaulte of the Cambridge office building, at the southwest corner of Fifth avenue and Thirty-third street, the improvements being from designs by Harold Hall, as architect, and for remodelling the sidewalk and vaulte of the Cambridge office buildings for Mons Jansen on Heath avenue south of Kingsbridge road, to cost $12,000.
